
PROJECT MANAGER (F/M/X)

About PMA Partner – we believe in people

PMA Partner is serving tourism companies to get to the next level of business operations with a holistic view of the business. Together with our client we design and implement best-in-class solutions with focus on digitalization, automation and efficiency. With the combination of the broad experience in tourism, process management and IT of our team and the spirit of a start-up, PMA Partner offers a unique working experience, where ideas come to life. This combination enables PMA Partner to be aware of the pain points of the travel industry segments such as all kinds of tour operators, destination management companies (DMC), aviation companies and hospitality with deep know-how, on how to connect partners across the whole value chain.

About the job – make the difference

- Planning, implementation and management of sub-projects
- Project responsibility for time, budget and resource planning
- Creation and preparation of documents and analyses (presentations, concepts, decision bases, profitability & risk analyses, etc)
- Conducting research, interviews and workshops
- Stakeholder management
- Planning & coordination with product owners
- Management of external service providers

About you – contribute with your uniqueness

- An academic qualification at graduate level (Bachelor's degree) is desirable but not mandatory
- Experience in the field of project management / PMO as a project manager while applying classic, agile or hybrid project management methods
- Experience in the use of a project management tool (e.g. Wrike)
- Keen on improving analytical, strategic and conceptual skills
- Transparent and motivating character
- Reliable way of working
- Customer-oriented and confident appearance as well as very good communication skills
- Ability to work in a team, consulting and social skills, flexibility, initiative and assertiveness
- Fluent in English, German skills desirable but not mandatory

About our offer – why joining us

- Fair and competitive remuneration for your contribution on transforming the tourism industry
- Working in a global tourism-tech start-up with young and passionate colleagues
- We are looking for intercultural cooperation and offer the opportunity to work on international projects
- Flat company structure with the ability to take quick decisions and the possibility to be part of the companies' success
- Hybrid working model
- Modern and comfortable office space in the center of Munich

You want to rewrite the history of tourism technology and processes together with us? Then join our trip to new dimensions in the tourism universe and save your seat in the PMA Partner rocket! Apply now and fasten your seatbelt! We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Joinus@pmapartner.com and send your application today!